This musical score is arranged for a four-part choir and piano accompaniment. It consists of four systems, each with two staves. The top staff of each system is a vocal line, and the bottom staff is the piano accompaniment. The key signature has one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The score is written in a style that includes solfège labels (Do, Re, Mi, Fa, So, Ti, La) above the notes to indicate pitch. The piano part features a steady accompaniment with chords and moving lines. The vocal parts enter in a staggered fashion, creating a rich harmonic texture. The first system shows the initial entry of the voices and the piano accompaniment. The second and third systems continue the vocal and instrumental parts, with various harmonic changes. The fourth system concludes the piece with a final chord and a sustained piano accompaniment.

The image displays two identical musical staves, each featuring a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The notation is organized into measures, with notes labeled with solfège syllables: Do, Re, Mi, Fa, So, and La. The notes are primarily half notes, with some quarter notes and rests. The labels are color-coded: Do is black, Re is blue, Mi is red, Fa is black, So is black, and La is black. The notes are arranged in a way that suggests a specific melodic line, with some notes appearing as pairs or triplets. The overall structure is a simple musical exercise or a short piece of music.
